Other news and reminders this week

Art Exhibition

On Thursday we held our first Art Exhibition of the new academic year!

Each class showcased the artwork they had been working on from last term and from our new Vision launch.

As a special treat, our Young Voices choir showcased what they have been working on too.

I'm sure you'll agree that all our children should #StandProud for all of the hard work they have been putting in.

We hope to make our Art Exhibitions a termly event, so if you missed out this time hopefully you can join us for the next one.

Thank you so much to all the parents/carers who were able to attend, and to all of the children who participated in and helped out at the event!

Poetry Slam

On Monday, the poet Rob Bradley came to TASP to work with some of our children.

Rob did a whole school assembly to inspire the children and then Adams class worked with him throughout the day to write a poem on the theme of "green" ready for our upcoming Poetry Slam.

Thank you Rob! #BelieveYouCan

EYFS/KS1 Nativity

By now you all should have received your Nativity tickets if you have requested some (this time with the correct date on!). Please keep hold of these and bring them with you on the day of the performance. This is so that we can manage numbers for health and safety purposes.

If you require tickets still or would like extra tickets, these are limited, so please contact the school office as soon as possible.

Parents Evening

Thank you to all parents/carers who were able to attend our parents evenings this week.

If you missed out and would like to speak with your child's teacher about their progress, please speak with the school office to arrange this.

Hawking class and Brontë class parents evenings will be rearranged and communicated out asap.
