Other news and reminders this week

WELCOME BACK! HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Sophie Kirtley pays Year 3/4 a Virtual Visit.

Year 3/4 were lucky enough to welcome author Sophie Kirtley for a workshop on Tuesday morning. She is known for writing adventurous books for children and her book "The Wild Way Home" was one of the class books in Year 3/4 last term.

Sophie delivered 2 one hour long sessions, with the first focusing on reading and the second focusing on creative writing, specifically our new genre of myths involving strong characters and fast moving action.

Here's what Sophie had to say about the our children:

"The children were SO BRILLIANT and I really enjoyed meeting everyone. I hope everyone enjoyed it as much as I did and came away feeling happy and inspired."

Well done Year 3/4!

After School Clubs Changes

We have had a few changes to the after school clubs that are on offer this term. The Friday choir with Mrs. Dale will no longer be running. This is going to be replaced with KS2 violin lessons. A letter has been sent out to register your interest in this today.

Family art club will also stop running and will be replaced with a sports club. Mr Shepherd will be running a hockey club on Thursdays for Year 5/6 children, with the aim of putting together a hockey team for an intra-school competition at the end of term.

We are also looking at having a dance club on offer and once this has been looked into further we will send out details.
